When a nation stands up for its rights, no force can bend it.

For two years I have been in prison

USPA NEWS - When a nation stands up for its rights, no force can bend it. I am free even in jail, but my nation is in a prison outside where there is no independent judiciary, no free democracy, no free media. All Pakistanis will now have to come out for their true freedom!!

For two years I have been in prison only for the sake of the Pakistani nation so that no one can enslave you. Now it is time for you to stand up for your own freedom and defeat this oppressive system.

For the sake of the country, I have repeatedly talked about negotiations, but now the time for negotiations has passed. After the 26th Constitutional Amendment, the constitution, law and justice have been buried in this country. The hope we had for justice from the courts has completely disappeared, so now no other method can bring the Pakistani nation out of this swamp of lawlessness except a nationwide protest movement.

The full plan of the nationwide movement will be presented this week - August 5th will mark the completion of 2 years of my unjust imprisonment. This will be the culmination of our nationwide protest movement.

There will be no negotiations with anyone now! There will only be protests on the streets so that the nation can get rid of the puppet rulers imposed by force.

I am giving a clear message that any PTI official who cannot carry the weight of this movement should leave immediately. Those who have bowed their knees before them should remember! After some time, these same people will crush them and the people will never forgive them.

Even Nelson Mandela and Gandhi were allowed to meet other prisoners, read books and write books. I am serving a prison sentence where I am locked up in a 6x8 cell for 22 hours a day. Even the police cannot talk to me. Books have been closed for 6 months. My children are not allowed to talk to me. My lawyers and colleagues cannot meet me. My family is allowed to meet me for a few minutes after a week and they are often stopped. I have not been examined by my personal doctor for ten months. My newspaper and TV have also been closed for the past week. Even the books that are sent to me by my family are not provided to me and are lying in the superintendent's room. My wife is also kept in solitary confinement in the worst conditions.

The establishment and its puppets are behind all this. All this is done to break me. But I will stand against oppression until my last breath.

We gave the tribal areas their constitutional and legal rights after many decades and provided ample resources for the reconstruction and development of the area. The current regime initially withheld legitimate funds from these areas for three years and now efforts are being made to withdraw their constitutional rights, which is highly condemnable. Our parliamentarians and representatives made a good decision by boycotting these measures.

"The reason behind suspending our Punjab MPAs for protesting during the fake government's budget is that the protests against Maryam Nawaz have been very unpleasant to them - even though protests have always taken place during the budget."
